is here looking over the field.

The congregation of the Third Christian Church will have the opportunity to-day of hearing its former pastor, Rev. S. R. Maxwell, now of Georgia. Mr. Maxwell will preach at the Third Church morning and evening to-day, and on next Friday ovening will lecture on "Humbugs." Since being away from Richmond Mr. Maxwell has not been idle. He has built at Valdosta, Ga., a church costing $12,000 and has written a book, now in its second edition, entitled "Unseen Forces and How to Use Them." While here Mr. Maxwell is the guest of Mr. Herbert Ware, No. 616 North Twenty-seventh Street.

Rev. B. H. Melton, of the Marsiall Street Christian Church, will preach as usual to-day. At the West End Christian Church the pastor, Rev. Henry Pearce Atkins, will conduct both services to-day. "After Death—What?" will be the theme for the morning service, and at night his subject will be "According to the Scriptures."

Rev. Dr. Henry E. Johnson will discuss "Faith in Relation to Spiritual Lafe" at 11 o'clock to-day, and "Praying for a Revival" at 8 o'clock.

GIVES HIS SECRET

A Remarkable Discovery By a Remarkable Man

The Art of Fascinating, the Power of nctism Fully and Completely Revealed at Strength, Overcomes All Diseases, Enables You to Know the Secret Natures of Others and Handle Them as You Please.

Professor R. F. Robertson, Psych, D. C. D., is the greatest living teacher of Personal Magnetism, He has astounded the scientists of the world. He has discovered a new system of developing and imparting magnetic force. He believes the great power he has discovered lies dormant in every individual. He guarantees you can master its strange secrets at your own home and perform wonders of which you never dreamed. You can know at a glance the secret natures, talents, weaknesses, strength and vices of every person you meet. You can quickly develop marvelous physical and mental power, overcome all diseases in yourself or others, banish pain and bad habits without drugs or surgery. Professor Robertson can read your secret nature and influence your thoughts, though a thousand miles away. He can teach you how to do the same. This may seen incredible, but he absolutely guarantee this result under a forfeiture of $1,000.00 in gold. The power of hypnotism, per suasion, threats and entreaties pales into insignificance when compared with the wonders of this mighty force.

Professor Robertson calls his new die covery the "Ki-Magi" System of Persona Influence. You do not have to have sub jects upon which to practice. Professo Robertson's instructions are so plain and explicit that you can read them careful ly, and at once use this great power sec retly to influence and control the though and desires of any one you wish. You will be startled and mystified at the wor derful things you can do; you will b astonished at the amazing power th you can exercise over others. Prominen ministers of the gospel, lawyers and business men have mastered Professor Robertson's new system, and they gi it their highest indorsem

BAR WILL MEET TO NOMINATE JUDGE

Successor to Judge Minor is to Be Selected Next Tuesday.

There are but two persons prominently mentioned as likely to be endorsed by the Bar. They are Judge John H. Ingram, of the Corporation Court of Man-ohester, and Mr. William Monoure, of the City Bar. The friends of both gentlemen have been energetic in urging the merits of their man, and both are hopeful of success. Friends of Judge Ingram confidently claim for him enough votes to assure him the nomination of the Bar. This will be equivalent to appointment, the Governor, according to precedent, naming the man recommend.

lip, for years editor of the Staunton News, but more recently with the Norfolk Virginian-Pilot, not long age accepted a position with the Staunton News, now owned by Mr. Smythe and others, According to the story, the contract between employer and employe had not been signed, when, for some reason, a disagreement arose and Mr. Haislip was notified that he was not longer needed. He thereupon applied for an injunction restraining Mr. Smythe from interfering with him in the discharge of his duties in connection with the paper. He retained as his counsed Mr. A. Caperton Braxton, one of the best-known lawyers in the State. Mr. William A. Prattrepresents the newspaper.

A temporary injunction was granted by Judge Henry W. Holt, of the Corporation Court, Judge Letcher, of the Circuit Court, being absent from the city. The hearing on the question of perpetuating the injunction will come up in a few days. This is one of the first instances wherein injunction has been resorted to in the anforcement of a contract for employment. Mr. Haislip, it is understood, claims he has a contract with the owners of the paper, while the owners hold the contrary. The merits of the case are not fully known. All the parties to the action are well known. The Wortendyke Manufacturing Company of this city, makers of paper bags, tollet paper and paper twine at their plant at the foot of Thirteenth Street is extending the scope of its operations, and has just made a large transcontinental shipment. A full carlond of paper bags manufactured in this city, were yesterday shipped via the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway, consigned to Zellerbach and Co., San Francisco. Cal. This is a fine record for this industry, showing that it can compete successfully with the largest manufacturers in the country. Mr. Thomas F. Jeffries, of this city, is predient of the company, and Mr. Lawis G. Chelf is secretary and treasurer, it is a young industry that is fast growing in importance.

OLD DOMINION BREWING Rev. Philip Johnson, of Bethany College, West Virginia, will preach at the Seventh Street Christian Church to-day. The committee of the church has been working very quietly, but very diligently, to get a pastor of this church to begin work early in the fall.
